2020 BTRDA Rallycross Championship Preview

On behalf of the BTRDA Rallycross Committee, welcome to Lydden Hill, in September for Rounds 1 of the 2020 Autosport International BTRDA Clubman's Rallycross Championship presented by Cooper Tires.

It seems an age away when we officially launched the 2020 Championship at the Autosport International in January 2020, and back then this weekend should have been round 8 of the original 2020 calendar. How things have changed with Covid-19 having a significant impact not only on our Championship but daily life in general.

The Championship now boasts a 5 round championship starting here at Lydden Hill, then to Blyton Circuit on October 4th, followed by visiting Knockhill with a revised date of the 25th October and now finishing off the season at Pembrey Circuit on November 7th and 8th.

On a pleasing note even though we have been in strange times since March, there has been increased interest in the championship with new drivers, new cars and some returning faces all set to compete in 2020.

So who are the runners and riders to watch out for this year?

During the winter months it seemed to be the Clubman 4x4 Category that was receiving the most interest with a whole host of new and regular drivers set to join the series. However, these hopes were soon dashed with the cancellation of the Pembrey event on August 8th and 9th. It now looks likely that Graeme Reid, Nissan Pulsar GTi-R will join the Championship at Knockhill and fingers crossed, Nigel Burke, Subaru Impreza is present at Pembrey in November, along with the likes of Mike Manning and Pat Ryan.

The Production 4X4 Category has certainly taken its time to gain momentum and each season we hope for more, hopefully we will see growth in 2020. We already know that Paul Davis (Subaru) and Chris Baker (Subaru) plan to compete in the Championship. New drivers for 2020 include Aaron Shaw (Subaru WRX) and former production driver Bradley Sampson in his Mitsubishi Lancer EVO.

With 2019 SuperModified Champion Pat Ryan moving up to the Clubman 4x4 class in 2020 things really have opened for a new Champion this season. Starting as favorite is former champion Tony Lynch who will return to the Category at the wheel of his Ford KA Sport. Tony is sure to face some stiff competition with the likes of Fred Ling (Fiesta), Gary Cook (Fiesta), Kenny Hall (Clio), Todd Crooks (BMW Mini), Alan Crockett (Corsa) and brothers Sam (Astra Rwd) and Stan Bovill (Escort Rwd).

The ever-popular Production category will continue to be the biggest entry of the Championship and 2019 champion Dale Ford is sure to start as favorite for the coming season. As the entry level into the BTRDA championship it will see a whole host of new drivers in 2020 including; Maciej Florczak (106), Rob Bond (Saxo), Peter Wharton Jnr (C2), Karl Jarvis (Saxo), Joe Booth (Suzuki) and Paul Greenwood (Saxo) all joining the championship. Hoping to challenge Dale for top honors includes the likes of Joe Meskauskas (C2), Dom Booth (Clio), Harry Vulkhaard (Saxo) and Lee Keeler (Saxo).

Marc Jones probably starts the season as Classic favorite and having had an accident over the winter is one driver who is glad of a delayed start to the season. Marc is sure to face some stiff opposition this year with a whole host of regular and new drivers looking to do a full season. Of the new drivers taking part it's the Pascoe brothers who will race their Escort and Sierra Cosworth's who will be looking to topple Marc off the top spot. The diversity of cars in the category in 2020 will certainly increase with a Porsche, MG Maestro, Saab powered Corsa and a Peugeot 205 GTi all set to race.

Two times overall BTRDA Champion Luke Constantine will return to defend his title and continue to compete in the ever-growing Junior category. This category should certainly see some new names in 2020 with various drivers moving onto new things and lots of new drivers joining the category. Some new names this year include: Caitlin May (Suzuki), Owen Robbins (Suzuki), Kacper Potyra (Saxo), Corey Padgett (Swift) and Harry Garman (Suzuki) who are all planning a full season. A whole host of regulars will also return all aiming to be 'stars of the future'

The 2020 season already promises to be a great season, I don't think we have ever gone into a season with so many drivers capable of winning and no real favourites across any of the 6 categories.
